Read the whole passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow.

Disturbing the Peace

1. It was a beautiful spring morning down at Ballyholme Beach. Birds chirped and the wind sang
2. in the chilly morning breeze. Gentle waves moved elegantly along the surface of the clear
3. blue water. Gemma sat on the pier with her geography book in her lap, occasionally looking
4. out at the peaceful waves moving back and forth.

5. Suddenly, running footsteps came from behind and a voice shouted, “Kowabunga!” Before
6. Gemma could move an inch, her best friend Izzy flew directly over her head. Izzy was
7. shrieking with laughter as she dove into the water. The cold water splashed all over Gemma
8. and soaked her to the skin!

9. As Izzy swam back to the pier, Gemma was wiping her face. “You said you’d never do that
10. again!” Gemma declared, with a scowl on her face.

11. Izzy raked the hair out of her eyes and shrugged. “I said I wouldn’t splash you at the pool,
12. Gem. We’re at a beach now. And, come on, how much studying do you need to do on this
13. trip? You’ve been reading all morning.” Izzy splashed the water playfully. “Come on, jump in!
14. The water’s great.”

15. Gemma sighed and closed her book. She would have to learn about mountain and valley
