Homemade Pasta

1. When Kyle and his older sister Lucy found an easy recipe for homemade pasta noodles
2. and tomato sauce, they couldn't wait to try it. Their parents had said they were now old
3. enough to cook dinner for the family, and spaghetti was their favourite food.

4. First, they made the noodles. They mixed together flour, water, eggs, salt, and a little olive oil
5. to prepare the dough. Lucy used a rolling pin to press the dough flat. Next, she used a knife to
6. carefully cut the dough into thin strips. Then, she put the noodles aside for later.
7. Kyle chopped up a large onion and a bunch of fresh basil leaves. He put a clove of garlic
8. into a small garlic press and smashed the clove. Lucy helped him cook the onions and garlic in
9. some olive oil in a pot. When the onions and garlic were soft and golden, Kyle added a can of 10. crushed tomatoes, the basil, and some salt and pepper. Then he turned the heat down low.

11. When the sauce was almost ready, Lucy boiled water in a large pot expertly to cook the 12. noodles. Kyle was relieved to find out that fresh pasta cooks much faster than dried pasta from
13. the store. Everyone was very hungry by the time dinner was ready.
14. "This is delicious!" Mum said. "You two did such a great job."
15. "Thanks, Mum," Lucy said confidently. "It was pretty easy." Kyle was too busy eating to
