Comprehension

The Lighthouse

- 1 Every evening, old Tom climbed the spiral stairs of the lighthouse.
2 His knees ached, yet he never once complained about the long climb.
3 For fifty years he had kept the great lamp burning above the bay,
4 guiding tired fishing boats safely home through the darkness.
5 On stormy nights the wind howled fiercely around the tower,
6 and the huge waves crashed against the rocks far below.
7 Tom would light the lamp, then settle into his creaky wooden chair
8 with a steaming mug of cocoa and his faithful old dog, Pip.
9 One wild November night, a distress flare burst above the water.
10 Somewhere out in the storm, a small boat was in serious trouble.
11 Without hesitating, Tom telephoned the lifeboat crew in the village.
12 Then he turned the beam of the lamp toward the struggling vessel,
13 sweeping its bright light slowly across the roaring sea.
14 The rescuers followed that golden path straight to the sinking boat.
15 Every frightened sailor was pulled, shivering, from the icy water.
16 By dawn the storm had faded, and a calm grey light filled the sky.
